CREAKING BLUE LINE

Year on year rise in murder, sex offences, robbery and burglary

By Lewis Berrill

barking@yellowad.co.uk

THE London homicide rate rose by 44 per cent over the last year – with seven people killed in Barking and Dagenham, Redbridge and Havering in 2018.

The Metropolitan Police released its end-of-year crime statistics comparing the end-of-financial year April to March 2017/18 with April to March 2016/17.

Homicides are up 44 per cent, from 109 offences to 157. The figures include killings in the Westminster Bridge terror attack in March, and the London Bridge and Finsbury Park attacks in June.

A Met spokesperson said: “The number of homicides is still much lower than in 2003/04 when there were 205 instances.

“Nevertheless, any murder is one murder too many and detectives are working 24/7 to catch those responsible, using all resources available to them.”

Knife crime offences are up 21.2 per cent and knife crime with injury offences are up 7.7 per cent, from 4,446 offences to 4,700.

Gun crime offences are down 4.6 per cent.

Assistant Commissioner Martin Hewitt, responsible for Territorial Policing, said: “The Met continues to experience a very busy and challenging time against the backdrop of significant reductions in resources.”

“I am very concerned about the rise in crime in the capital, particularly murder, violent crime and knife crime.

“We are reducing the number of young people who are being injured in knife attacks. We have made record seizures of guns.

“Theft of scooters and scooter-enabled crime has seen a month-on-month downward trend since October thanks to proactive policing operations, new tactics, and the Be Safe awareness campaign.

“However, in the context of the murders that have been committed in our communities, we can only view these as small successes.”

Sexual offences are up by 11.04 per cent; recorded rape is up by 18.39 per cent – 6,510 to 7,707 offences – and other sexual offences are up by 6.83 per cent.

A Met spokesperson said: “The Met’s Child Abuse and Sexual Offences Command has been working within the diverse communities to address under reporting of offences, particularly through a social media campaign: #ITSNOTOK.”

Robbery is up 35.81 per cent – 24,202 to 32,869 offences, with robbery of personal property up by 36.17 per cent.

Burglary of homes and businesses has risen 11.65 per cent

Theft is up by 8.05 per cent with theft from a person at 25.19 per cent, from 38,013 to 47,587 offences.

The Met explained the increase in robberies can largely be attributed to the rise in scooter-related crime.

“The Met has been putting a huge amount of effort into stemming the rise in these offences.

“In October, new tactics such as DNA spray, light-weight police motorcycles, and remote control tyre deflation devices were introduced,” a Met spokesperson added.

Weald Country Show and Festival of Dogs

THE Weald Country Show is back for its seventh year and promises to be even bigger and better than ever with many new attractions.

The show, which supports local and quintessentially British traditions, is at Weald Country Park, Brentwood, on Sunday to Monday, May 6-7, from 10am to 5pm.

We have many new and exciting attractions including the talented Jonathan Marshall from Britain's Got Talent and Great British Bake Off Winner, Sophie Faldo.

The National Horseboarding

Championships, a new and growing sport, is at the show and great family fun.

The Food and Drink Market will have as well as Sophie, talented and exceptional chefs.

In the main ring are the Wings of the World and incredible motorbike stunts.

Talented rural crafters, including the Cheam Woodworkers, will be handmaking products such as sticks, along with blacksmiths, willow weavers and potters.

There is also medieval archery and a chance to meet the Kew Micro pigs, loads of amazing community groups, and the local astronomical society will give visitors a chance to learn more about stargazing.

The fantastic Festival of Dogs area will have dog rings with shows daily with over 22 classes in aid of charity, plus flyball, shows run by local agility groups and Dima from BGT.

Hold a snake, bearded dragon or tortoise with Amazing Reptiles and visit Gemma's petting farm which is a fabulous addition, educational and fun.

Shop at the lifestyle stands and the Living History Camp features 18th century living, cooking, coin-making and how people lived in the past.

Our Living History Schools project encourages schoolchildren to come along to the show dressed in living history outfits on the Monday and they can come in for free.

New this year is Bush Adventures, including axe throwing, camping demonstrations and much more.

Music comes courtesy of the county's most up and coming talent with eight bands playing daily.

Woman fined over festering bags of refuse

A DAGENHAM resident has been ordered to pay more than £700 after leaving nearly 30 bin bags of waste to fester in her front garden.

Clare Jones, of Martin Knigget Gardens, failed to comply with a Community Protection Notice served to her by council enforcement officers.

Residents complained of the smell coming from waste in her garden, prompting officers to visit on May 25, 2017.

Following the visit Jones was served with an eyesore letter under the provisions of the Anti-Social Behaviour Crime and Policing Act 2014, giving her seven days to remove the waste.

Officers returned to the property on June 17, but while some of the waste was cleared bags of rotting waste remained.

A Community Protection Notice was issued giving her 21 days to remove all waste.

When the council officers returned on July 21 they found more waste spread across the front garden.

On July 27, Jones was issued a Fixed Penalty Notice of £100. The case was sent to

HAZARD: The bags of rubbish outside the house in Dagenham court after she failed to pay.

Jones was found guilty in her absence at Barking-side Magistrates' Court last month.

She was fined £250, ordered to pay £430.50 costs to the council and a £30 victim surcharge.

Jonathon Toy, operational director for enforcement services, said: "This is a great example of the hard work our enforcement officers are doing to ensure residents are disposing of their waste in the correct manner."

"Despite continued warnings Ms Jones failed to deal with the problem and we had to take the strongest possible action to ensure the matter was dealt with.

"I would urge all our residents to let us know if they see anyone breaking the rules and help us as we look to clean up the borough."

Deaf teenager crowned UK Student of the Year

A DEAF student has been named UK Student of the Year.

Jephta Asamoah, 18, from Barking and Dagenham College, was named the Leidos and Career Ready UK Student of the Year at The Sandbox, Canary Wharf.

Jephta beat thousands of students across the UK in recognition of his outstanding commitment and progress on the Career Ready programme.

Career Ready, a UK-wide charity, links young people to the world of work, providing them with mentoring, skill development opportunities, and paid internships.

During his time on the two-year programme he received professional mentoring during a four-week paid internship at Portland Communications.

Jephta said: "Before I started the programme, I was a frustrated and angry young man, fed up of being told that I couldn't do things because of my disability."

"Now, I'm working with directors and CEOs and I've just accepted a place to study politics at Lancaster University."

"I knew Career Ready was going to change my life – and it has."

Nicky Gibson, college director of student support, said: "Jephta is a true inspiration to young people with disabilities; he is living proof that nothing in life should hold you back from achieving your dreams."

Help volunteers clean up two lakes

DEBRIS: Padnall Lake

THE council is seeking volunteers to clean up two lakes.

Padnall Lake, in Marks Gate and South Lake, in Mayesbrook Park, are to be tidied up after residents raised concerns over fly-tipping.

Residents are being sought to join council staff and volunteers from LBBB Volunteer Group and Barking College students to transform the lakes.

Tom Hook, director of policy and participation, said: "We have listened to residents and our teams, and local volunteers, will be at the two lakes getting them in tip-top shape for the summer – so if anyone would like to join them, please do."

The clean-up at South Lake is between 12.30pm and 2.30pm on Friday, May 4, and at Padnall Lake on Monday, May 14, 12.30pm to 2.30pm.

REDBRIDGE'S voluntary sector is being examined to assess its needs, future demands and role in the community.

Redbridge Council has commissioned a review into the voluntary sector by Rocket Science, a company specialising in focus and discussion groups.

Rocket Science will host four meetings, where those working in the voluntary sector or in community groups can share their views.

The meetings and locations are:

■ Tuesday, May 8: 4.30pm-6pm, City Gates Church, Clements Road, Ilford.

■ Thursday, May 10: 4.30pm-6pm, Orchard Community Hall, Broadmead Road, Woodford Green.

■ Saturday, May 12: 2pm-3.30pm, Fullwell Cross Library, High Street, Fairlop.

■ Monday, May 14: 4.30pm-6pm, Loxford Youth Centre, Loxford Lane, Loxford.

If you can't attend a meeting but want a say, complete the survey at www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/RedbridgeVCS.

All meetings are free to attend and open to all who are involved with the voluntary sector.

HAMMERS NO MATCH FOR CHAMPIONS

Football

West Ham United 1
Manchester City 4
Brian Jeeves reporting

WEST HAM United found Manchester City in sparkling form as the Premier League champions eased to an impressive victory on Sunday.

With both Stoke and Southampton closing the gap on the teams immediately above them, the Hammers' cushion from those in the drop zone had reduced to a precarious three points.

The East Londoners were forced into a change in goal, with Adrian coming in for Joe Hart – the England stopper ineligible against his parent club.

David Moyes made one further change from the side that had collapsed in the latter stages at Arsenal a week previous, with Patrice Evra coming in for Joao Mario, who slipped to the bench.

All-conquering City arrived in the capital chasing down one hundred points and goals for what has proved to be a remarkable campaign.

Pep Guardiola was without injured duo, Sergio Aguero and John Stones, although City were boosted by the return of Fernandinho following a two-match ban for picking up ten yellow cards during the season.

City were unbeaten in their six previous encounters with the Hammers, and they created the first clear-cut opening when Ilkay Gundogan was a whisker away from a telling contact with Raheem Sterling's low centre. But it didn't take the Champions long to open their account. Leroy Sane's drive deflected off Evra, wrong-footing the stranded Adrian and landing in the bottom corner of the Londoners' net.

Ederson had largely been a spectator during the early stages. But the City stopper reacted quickly to direct Manuel Lanzini's low cross away from goal. Meanwhile, Sterling scuffed wide as City continued to dominate with alarming ease.

It was soon 2-0. Adrian and Angelo Ogbonna combined to thwart Sterling, but when Kevin De Bruyne recycled the move and delivered from the right, Declan Rice and Pablo Zabaleta became tangled and could only look on in anguish as the ball deflected off the pair before trickling agonisingly over the line. It was City's 100th league goal of the season.

Marko Arnautovic appeared harshly to be denied a goal. Referee Neil Swarbrick chalking off the Austrian's effort after he pounced on the dithering Ederson.

But three minutes before the break the Hammers did reduce the arrears. Aaron Cresswell fizzed an angled dead-ball effort beyond Ederson's reach, bringing the home crowd to life in the process.

But in truth, the gulf in class was enormous. It took City just eight second-half minutes to re-establish their two-goal advantage.

Sterling's trickery on the right fashioned an opening for Gabriel Jesus, who in turn steadied himself before dispatching past the exposed Adrian.

As painful as it was for West Ham's supporters, they could only admire the crisp, flowing football provided by their guests. Sterling and De Bruyne passed up decent opportunities to extend the visitors' lead further. The fourth goal arrived when Fernandinho swept home from 12 yards after Sterling had again played a part in the move.

The final whistle came as a huge relief to the West Ham players and they face an anxious finale to the season with their Premier League status very much in the balance.

"They were far better than us, outstandingly good," Moyes remarked after the game.

The Scotsman has come in for some criticism over team selection in recent weeks and was targeted by the fans after substituting Lanzini. However, the Hammers chief was happy to shoulder their frustrations, adding: "The players here have got to understand, we play players to keep the ball, to defend.

"Manu had a great chance to keep the ball for us and we end up losing the fourth goal for it."

Satisfied City manager Guardiola said: "We created a lot of chances as well as scoring lots of goals."

"We are an honest team and are still pushing to achieve. It is about how you react, not with arrogance or presumptuousness."

"We have something special in terms of confidence and we needed some targets to set in front of us."

West Ham return to Premier League action on Saturday, May 5 when they travel to the King Power Stadium to face Leicester City (3pm).

West Ham United: Adrian, Aaron Cresswell, Pablo Zabaleta, Marko Arnautovic, Cheikhou Kouyate, Manuel Lanzini (Javier Hernandez 66'), Mark Noble (Capt), Angelo Ogbonna, Patrice Evra (Arthur Masuaku 66'), Edimilson Fernandes (Joao Mario 65'), Declan Rice Subs not used: Nathan Trott, Andy Carroll, Jordan Hugill, Josh Cullen

Manchester City: Ederson, Kyle Walker (Danilo 61'), Raheem Sterling, Ilkay Gundogan (Yaya Toure 71'), Aymeric Laporte, Kevin De Bruyne, Fabian Delph, Leroy Sane, Fernandinho (Capt), Nicolas Otamendi, Gabriel Jesus (Lukas Nmecha 79') Subs not used: Claudio Bravo, Bernardo Silva, Benjamin Mendy, Phil Foden

Non-league round-up

Billericay and Gt Waking go up

By Brian Jeeves

BILLERICAY Town and Great Waking Rovers celebrated title success in their respective leagues as a number of the region's clubs completed their gruelling campaigns.

Town, who had claimed the Bostik League Premier Division title following a midweek victory over Harlow Town, received the championship trophy after a record league attendance of 2,206 had witnessed a thrilling 2-2 draw with Folkestone Invicta at the AGP Arena.

Joseph Taylor twice fired the Kent side ahead. Ricky Modeste initially restored parity, while former Spurs and Wolves man, Jamie O'Hara, ensured the Blues had the final say with a wonderful 30-yard strike in stoppage-time.

Meanwhile, Great Waking Rovers ensured an immediate return to the Bostik North by claiming top spot in the Essex Senior League, hammering West Essex 5-0 at Burroughs Park. Neil Richmond, Stephen Butterworth, Sam Carter, Nathan Dewberry and Nathan Dewberry found the net as the Villagers grabbed the honours with a game to spare.

There was a contrast in emotions at Staines Town as visitors, Thurrock, played their final game before disbanding. Ronnie Winn and Jordan Clark appeared to have given the hardy bunch of travelling fans a final celebration, scoring twice in the opening eight minutes. But the home side hit back to win 5-2.

Bostik North champions, AFC Hornchurch, finished their campaign with a 2-2 draw at Waltham Abbey. Christian Assombalonga and Theo Fairweather-Johnson were on target for the Urchins – Darelle Russell with a brace for the Capershots side.

Bowers & Pitsea have to be satisfied with a play-off place after a 4-1 victory over Brentwood Town at the Len Salmon Stadium. Lewis Manor, Ben Sartain, Jamie Dicks and Martyn Stokes ensured the home side finished in third place. Tom Ranger provided the Brentwood response.

Heybridge Swifts' memorable campaign continues after Luke Callander and Juan Luque helped them to a 2-1 victory against Soham Town Rangers. Canvey Island also make the play-offs. Mitchell Gilbey scored twice for the Gulls in a 2-2 draw with Ware at Park Lane.

Tom Richardson (2) and Anthony Martin eased Aveley to a 3-1 win over Mildenhall Town at Parkside, while Romford avoided relegation with a 4-2 triumph over Maldon & Tiptree. Carlos Djalo Oso, Ayodeji Olukoga, Kris Newby and Greg Akpele were on target for the home side. Former Southend United and Spurs striker, Lee Barnard, scored a brace for the visitors.

Harry Norman scored in each half as Tilbury won 2-0 at Witham Town, but there were defeats for Barking, 3-0 at home to Potters Bar Town, and Grays Athletic, 1-0 at AFC Sudbury.

In the National League, Leyton Orient finished the season with a flourish, winning 3-1 at Gateshead. Macauley Bonne, Jobi McAnuff and Josh Koroma found the net for the O's at the International Stadium.

Meanwhile, Dagenham & Redbridge concluded an uncertain campaign with a 2-0 defeat at champions, Macclesfield Town.

Scott Fenwick bagged a brace, while Anthony Church was also on target as Chelmsford City ensured a third-placed National South finish with a 3-0 victory at Eastbourne Borough.

Braintree Town join the Clarets in the play-offs following a 3-0 victory over Gloucester City at Cressing Road. Reece Grant, scored twice, while Josh Hill also found the net for the North Essex side.

East Thurrock United went down 1-0 at the hands of Hungerford Town at Rookery Hill. Nicholas Bignall scored the visitors' goal shortly before the interval. Andy Freeman and a Jordan Rose own goal couldn't prevent Concord Rangers from slipping to a 3-2 defeat at Havant & Waterlooville.

FC Romania are in the box seat to join Great Waking Rovers in the Bostik North following a 2-0 victory at Southend Manor. But Basildon United could trump them with a midweek win over Redbridge after the Bees drew 0-0 at Sporting Bengal United.
